A communication read from City Engineer Cantin to the supervisors Saturday recommended that the work of the Spalding Construction Company on Kalakaua avenue be finally accepted, together with the company's certified check for $500, offered as a guarantee that unfinished work amounting to about $150 would be completed. The recommendation passed the Board of Supervisors.

Among the arrivals on the Matsonia will be Mr. Huc-Mazel, Luquians, portrait painter and etcher. He comes from New Haven, Conn., where he has made his home since returning from Paris in 1906. Mrs. Jay Denies Any Berg Case Knowledge

The Star-Bulletin received in today's mail the following self-explanatory letter:

Editor Star-Bulletin.
Dear Sir: On account of the numerous letters of sympathy I am receiving from my friends in Honolulu I feel that it is necessary for me to ask you to print a few statements to clear my name from this mixup in connection with the death of Nurse Berg. If I had had any idea what it was all about I could have cleared it up long before this, but I trust you will attend to it for me at your earliest possible convenience.

From the explanation I have received from Lieut. Portwich I know now that the meaning in his correspondence was entirely misunderstood. I am not a nurse.

I never in my life saw either Queen's Hospital or the Western front.

I did not write a letter to the Advertiser for publication. After I received so many letters from Hawaii asking me to even return there and defend myself, I wrote a friend (in the employ of the Advertiser), asking for copies of their papers.

What is more, until I received these inquiries along with clippings from Honolulu papers I had never even heard the name of one of the people who were connected with the case.

Thanking you, Editor, for making this correction, also my many friends for their kind inquiries, I am, respectfully yours,
MRS. M. JAY.

Spain Neutral, Says Japanese Minister There

"Spain—its government and its people—are very neutral. Both the people and the government want to maintain strict neutrality." Thus did Miss I. Horigouchi, talented daughter of K. Horigouchi, for the past five years the Japanese minister to Spain, faithfully translate this morning from Spanish to English the statements of her father.

Then with a flash from her expressive eyes and a shrug of her shoulders, Miss Horigouchi continued: "Yes, Spain is neutral. Maybe so her people. But her government! Ah, not at heart."

There was a racial reason for Miss Horigouchi's evident desire to express her indignation for all who were not openly the foes of the defamers of Belgium, which was restrained only by filial duty.

Miss Horigouchi's mother is a Belgian and her training as the daughter of a noted Japanese diplomat cannot conceal from the observer that Belgium's wrongs are deeply felt by her. For a moment more Miss Horigouchi became the person interviewed.

"For three years now we have not heard from my mother's relatives. They were all in Brussels the last we heard. They may be dead. They may have suffered a worse fate."

Then her father intervened in broken English to repeat that Spain is neutral, evidently fearing from the expression on his daughter's face that she was not exactly living up to her part as an interpreter for a diplomat.

When questioned further he said that Spain commercially was profiting hugely and that internal conditions were good, despite infrequent strikes. Asked if he thought Germany maintained a submarine base on the Spanish coast he dismissed the question with the remark, "Of that I have heard nothing."

Miss Horigouchi says her father and mother were married about 30 years ago in Brussels, when he was a student there. After that they resided for many years in Japan until he was sent to Mexico City as Japanese minister.

Miss Horigouchi is a distinctive Occidental beauty, showing no trace of her Japanese blood, except perhaps in complexion. Of her powers as a linguist her father is proud. He told the Honolulu Japanese reporters that she spoke five languages fluently. These are Japanese, Belgian, French, German and Spanish.

Of the results of the Ishii mission to the United States and the reported declaration of a Monroe doctrine for China by Japan, the Japanese diplomat refused to talk. He evaded it by asking his daughter to state she did not understand "political subjects."

Besides his adult daughter, Minister Horigouchi is accompanied by his wife, small son and attaches.

DATES AT ARMY-NAVY "Y" FOR SAMMIES CONFLICT

Apparently there has been some misunderstanding as to the use of the Army and Navy Young Men's Christian Association building for the various clubs and organizations interested in the enlisted men. We wish to state that our building will be open to all such clubs and organizations at all times providing said dates do not conflict with other meetings or entertainments of this kind.

The increasing number of these meetings makes it absolutely necessary that arrangements for these dates be made at our office as early in advance as possible. W. A. HORN, Supervising Secretary.

As has already been announced in the Star-Bulletin, the territorial food commission is considering holding a public hearing to ascertain the reasons for the present high price of fish and its scarcity. When this hearing will be held has not been determined, and it may be a month until the commission is ready to begin. According to J. F. Child, federal food administrator, sufficient information and data on the fish question has not been secured and no hearing will be held until this is forthcoming.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.

RUSSIAN VIOLINIST IS VISITOR IN HONOLULU

Max Selinsky, a noted Russian dramatic violinist, who has been touring the United States for eight years, was an arrival on an Oceanic steamer today from San Francisco. He passed through here about a month ago on the Niagara. After making a visit to Vancouver, he proceeded to San Francisco, where he decided to come to Honolulu and give a number of concerts. In one of the Red Cross concerts given last year in Sydney, he appeared with Madam Melba and other noted musicians. He also has a valuable gift presented to him by the mayor of Montreal, Canada, for his aid in helping to raise Red Cross funds in that country early in the war.

MRS. JENNIE ESKEW DIES AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Jennie Eskew, wife of Ira Eskew, of 1813 College street, died on Sunday morning at Queen's hospital after an illness of about one month. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from her late residence.

Mrs. Eskew was born in Meridian, N. Y. in 1870. She came to Honolulu in 1899 and taught in the Kamehameha girls' school until 1903, when she was married. She is survived by her husband and two brothers, and two sisters, residents of New York state.

Final disposition of the report of Attorney Carl Carls Smith, recommending that four-year-old Richard Smart receive $11,050 a year instead of $2000, may be made in Circuit Judge Ashford's court next Wednesday morning.
